The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, Dec. 31, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Almost time to write it "1910."

This is almanac day for January.

Good resolutions are being framed.

1909 goes out with a record for Arctic weather.

Fifty printed visiting cards for 25 cents at Bulletin office—adv.

Most of the churches will repeat their Christmas music next Sunday.

The City Mission has urgent need of warm quilts and blankets. Telephone 879.

Feeling through the ice on the covers on both sides of the river is said to be good.

Some of the rural carriers have made the change from wheels to runners with good results.

Bitter cold like that of Thursday multiplies the demands upon the charitable societies' funds and supplies.

As far as possible, stores are closing up on the year's business and getting rid of their remaining holiday stock.

Dancing at Broadway dancing academy New Year's afternoon and evening: Norwich Concert orchestra—adv.

Pupils from the Norwich Business college had a sleighing party to Jewett City Wednesday evening, chaperoned by Principal and Mrs. W. E. Canfield.

The men who have been putting lightning arresters on the 75,000 telephones of the S. N. E. Telephone company in Connecticut, have reached Middletown in their rounds.

The New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad reports the loss of four quarterly passes numbered 5018, 6029, 8444, and 13505. Conductors have been ordered not to accept these passes for transportation.

Take your laundry to O. K. George, 48 Franklin street, if you want to get good work. All done by hand; nothing used to ruin clothes—adv.

Select Templars are busy preparing for the entertainment of the Select Templars of the state at Temple of Honor hall, in Portland, Conn., New Year's day. About forty are expected from out of town.

Local people who attended the North Adams, Mass., Old Home week celebration learn that not only are all bills paid, but the town finds itself with a balance of $1,500, and believes it has made a record in this respect.

Horace Johnson of Haddam sends word that the snow storm of Saturday night last is the heaviest booked for this winter. There will be a few other storms, but the coming snow falls will be light compared with the recent near-blizzard.

Some of the most cheery and hopeful messages for the New Year are found in the writings of the late Daniel Colt Gilman, honored president of Johns Hopkins university, and several of these, on daintily illuminated cards, are greatly prized by those who receive them.

The Fishers Island station, of which Capt. Edward P. Sisson is in command, reports that in the past year there have been ten cases where the aid of the station was required. The first was on February 4. In all, forty-three lives were imperiled and none of them was lost.

The prospect of more snow is causing the railroad officials some worry. They now have the situation caused by the last storm well under control, and they fear that a storm even approaching the last in severity would undo all their work and make conditions worse than they were early in the week.

The American School Peace league offers two sets of prizes on matters touching peace, to be known as the Seabury prizes, the first set open to seniors in the normal schools of the United States and the second to seniors in the preparatory schools in the United States. Three prizes of $75, $50 and $25 will be given for the three best essays in each set.

Of interest to Thompson friends is the following from Thursday's Providence Journal: Mrs. William W. Flint will accompany Mrs. Emma Shaw Colclough on a cruise to South America, sailing from New York on the Blucher on January 12, and visiting the West Indies, Brazil, Uruguay, the Argentine republic and Chili, as far south as the straits of Magellan, with a probable trip across the Andes to Santiago.

Taking Bar Examinations.

Many were at the capitol in Hartford on Thursday taking the examinations for admission to the bar. They included James S. Casey and Lee Roy Robbins of this city.

The examinations are all in writing and the candidates are examined on the following subjects: Contracts, including domestic relations, agencies, sales, insurance, carriers, etc.; torts, equity, real property, evidence, corporations, constitutional law, criminal law and practice, wills and administration, etc.

The examiners are Judge Samuel O. Prentice of the supreme court, Attorney William Waldo Hyde and Attorney Alvan Laido Hyde.

Miss Mabrey Going to Kansas.

Miss Helen R. Mabrey is at her home on Broadway for several days before leaving for Topeka, Kan., where she is to take an advantageous position as dietitian at Christ hospital. This fall she has been a pupil at the Kings county hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y., where her meritorious work attracted attention and earned the call to the Kansas hospital. Miss Mabrey is a graduate of the Academy and also of Columbia Training school, New York. She takes up her new duties on Jan. 5th.

To Install Officers.

Ashley T. Boon, district deputy grand patriarch, is to install the officers of the encampment in New London next Tuesday evening. A team from Canton, Ohio, No. 4, is to accompany him to assist in the work.

No Christ Church Service.

The watch night service which has usually been held at Christ church New Year's eve will be omitted this year.

East Hampton.—There is some skating on the lake. Boys with brooms and shovels are taking a large space so that hockey could be played.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Joseph Curran of Norwich is spending several days with friends in Portland, Conn.

Miss Bessie Armstrong is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles F. Chapman, in New York.

Perlin Miner of McKinley avenue leaves today to spend a week with relatives in Springfield, Mass.

Charles O'Neill of the Springfield farm with his young son, is visiting in Webster, Mass., for several days.

J. Wesley Garrison of Wakefield, R. I., a former Norwich resident, is visiting his brother-in-law, Earle Christman, at Poquetanuck.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hogan and their son James of Fitchburg, Mass., have returned after visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. Spellman of Ninth street.

Charles R. O. Williams and Allen M. Brand, who have been surveying a tract of land at Hopeville, Conn., for the past two weeks, are expected to finish the work and return to their homes in the city tonight.

WEDDING.

Cecellina-Roberta.
Frank Cecellina and Jennie Roberta were married at St. Patrick's church Thursday at 7 o'clock by Rev. Hugh Treanor. The bride and groom were attended by Otto Ferry, a cousin of the groom, and by Johanna Paracenti, an aunt of the bride.

A wedding dinner was held at the home of the bride's mother, 73 Thames street, at which there was a large gathering of friends of the couple at their reception. The bride received many presents, including cut glass and several large checks. The bridal couple left for New York on an evening train, and after a short trip will return to make their home in Norwich.

The bride is a popular young lady of the West Side, while the groom, who is secretary of a local decorating firm, is equally well known, and it is with bright prospects that they begin married life.

FUNERALS.

Andrew Magurinski.
On Thursday the remains of Andrew Magurinski, who was killed by a train near the city, were taken to the Aylmer street cemetery for burial by Funeral Director Gager.

Mary L. Drew.
The funeral of Mary Louise Drew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Drew, was held from their home, No. 12 Sherman street, on Wednesday, and burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. The child was four months of age.

Mrs. Addison Smith.
Thursday morning at 10:45 o'clock the funeral of Mrs. Addison Smith was held from the residence of Dr. E. H. Linnell in Broadway, the services being conducted by Rev. Dr. Lewellyn Pratt, pastor emeritus of Broadway Congregational church. There were many handsome floral tributes and a large number present. Relatives were present from New York and New Haven. The body was sent to New Haven on the noon train, and on Saturday morning, leaving about one o'clock, burial taking place in that city. Henry Allen & Son had charge of the arrangements.

T. A. B. WHIST.

Thirteen Tables Played at St. Mary's Hall—Prize Winners.

The second of the series of whists by St. Mary's T. A. and B. society was given Thursday evening in the small hall at their building, on Broadway, with thirteen tables playing and much interest in the outcome of the hands.

The individual top scores and prize winners for the evening were: Miss Lizzie Bowen, whose score of 42 brought her a pretty silver vase; and Lewis A. Andrews, who made 36 and received an umbrella.

There is added interest also in the total scores made for the series, as two money prizes are to be given to the highest total scores. For this Lewis A. Andrews, who has been first both times, has the lead among the men with a score of 69. George H. Stanton is second with 65. On the women's scores Miss Fannie Wright leads with 57 and Mrs. C. E. Wright is second with 55. The committee in charge of these semi-weekly whists is: Daniel Foley (chairman), John W. Shea, Lewis A. Andrews, John Fitzgerald, Henry Raleigh and Edward J. Kilday.

SUFFERED A SHOCK.

Anson A. Maynard, Fireman at Backus Hospital, in a Serious Condition.

As the result of a stroke of apoplexy, Anson A. Maynard, of the Backus hospital in a serious condition. He was stricken while at work early Tuesday morning and fell forward into a pile of coal. It is thought he lay there about two hours before found by the day fireman, Mr. Maynard having been the night fireman there. He received a slight cut in the fall. He was somewhat improved on Thursday, and there are hopes for his recovery. Mr. Maynard, although for many years a resident of the West Side, has been boarding with Mr. and Mrs. William Loomis in Greenville.

CRIMINAL SUPERIOR COURT CASES

Twenty-One are Assigned for Next Week—Pleas will be Taken Tuesday with Trials Following—Suit of Perus vs. Connecticut Company Settled—Decisions by Judge Reed.

State Attorney H. A. Hull was here on Thursday afternoon in consultation with attorneys interested in cases to come before the January term of the criminal superior court, which opens Tuesday of next week with Judge Reed on the bench. The state attorney met the other lawyers at the office of Clerk Parsons, and the following cases were assigned:

Tuesday, Jan. 4.—State vs. Michael D'Atti, Carlton A. Snyder.

Wednesday, Jan. 5.—State vs. William H. Lynch, Sidney Armstrong, Joseph A. Larive, Robert Brown et al., Charles Flanagan et al., George R. Haynes, Charles Hennes, Charles Maydock, Charles O'Connell et al., James Pouch, Katherine Williams, Carry Peabody and E. J. Frink.

Thursday, Jan. 6.—State vs. Charles Bagan, Michael J. McDonald, Gerald Babson, Lee Hill, George Tomlinson.

On Tuesday the pleas will be heard, while on Wednesday the jury will come in for the commencement of the trials. Six of the cases are ones which came over from last term, while the others are new ones.

Civil Court Matters.
When the civil court came in on Thursday morning for the resumption of the case of Perus vs. the Connecticut company, there was a conference among those interested most in the matter, which resulted in a statement of attorney, within the court wherein you may practice, according to the best of your learning and discretion, and with fidelity, as well to the court as to your client, he help your God."

Turning to Judge Shumway, Mr. Thayer then said:

"This attorney has made an attempt to use the highest branch of the government to do the thing which the statutes absolutely forbid. He entered into a deal with Attorney Rabell in New York, who was counsel for and against Robert A. Lowe, and with Samuel Lipshitz, to tie up Hendrick in his property so that he would be forced to give up. Then they told Hendrick when they got him over to Waterbury they wouldn't do a thing to him. It is a poor advertisement for Waterbury to have such an impression get abroad that such attorneys can use the courts to further their own ends."

In closing, Mr. Thayer argued that the decision should be against Rogers because he was not the bona fide owner of the claim he presented against Hendrick at the time he brought the action.

In his argument in support of the claims of Mr. Rogers, Attorney O'Neill said his client was acting within his rights and he considered Hendrick as a sharp operator.

Judge Shumway took the papers and the decision will be handed down later. The court was then adjourned.

KIMBALL DISTRICT SCHOOL.

Richard Sabrowski; Santa Claus, Elizabeth Prodel; Singing, No One Is Like Santa Claus; Kitten's Stocking, Elinor Copp; My Stocking, Persia Copp; Good Advice, Ethel Slater; singing, Christmas Work Song; Tom's Plan, Frederick Copp; My Choice, Bertha Slater; singing, We're Hanging Up Our Stockings; The Quarrel, Elizabeth Prodel; Games, What I Want, Elinor Copp; Jeanette's Letter, Ethel Slater; What I Found, Persia Copp; singing, Tell Me Who Is Santa Claus.

After the exercises the children were made happy with a present, candy, peanuts and an orange from the teacher.

The exercises were well attended by the parents and friends of the pupils. The room was prettily trimmed with evergreen and Christmas b's.

BONES HAVE DANCE.
Third Annual of Alpha Chapter Held at Miller's.

In the front rank of holiday gayeties was the third annual dance of Alpha chapter of Epsilon Upsilon, one of the Academy fraternities, popularly known as the "Bones," given at Miller's on Thursday evening, with from fifty to sixty couples attending, and for which over one hundred invitations had been sent out in the colors of the fraternity, black and gold. Among the colleges represented by those attending were Columbia, Yale, Cornell, Trinity, Vermont, Syracuse, Worcester Tech, and Boston Tech.

The patronesses were Mrs. Charles D. Noves, Mrs. Frank H. Smith, Mrs. Baer and Mrs. Lewis R. Church. A delightful programme of eighteen numbers was enjoyed from 8.30 to 12.30 o'clock, and refreshments were served at the intermission. T. K. Hendrick, F. Russell Smith and H. Porter were the committee in charge.

Thermometer Hugs Zero.
The longest stretch of cold weather this season is being experienced. The thermometer has hugged about the zero mark since last Saturday. On Thursday morning at 5 o'clock it was five above on Franklin square. In other places it went to zero and below. At 11 o'clock Thursday night on the square the thermometer registered five above, which was seven degrees colder than at the same point on Wednesday night at the same hour.
